Mountain View, Calif. (June 18, 2014) – Fenwick & West announced today that Jennifer Fuller, a partner in the firm's Tax Group, has been recognized as "Best in Tax Dispute Resolution" by Euromoney at its 2014 Americas Women in Business Law Awards, which recognizes the best women attorneys in North America. The firm was previously shortlisted in seven categories for this year's awards, and also earned recognition for its pro bono and mentoring programs.

"I am extremely pleased to have been recognized by Euromoney for this year's awards, and am proud of the firm for its deep commitment to supporting women lawyers, both at the firm and in the profession," said Fuller.

Fuller regularly advises on major corporate and international transactions and planning matters. She also is substantially involved in representing the firm's clients in dispute resolution and federal tax litigation.

She was honored as one of the top 25 women tax lawyers in Euromoney's biannual Guide to the World's Leading Women in Business Law in 2010 and 2012 and was invited to write the introduction to the Tax Section in both editions.

Fuller has served as the Northern California Chair for the California State Bar International Tax Committee and has spoken at and chaired numerous seminars on international tax subjects.
